Joy for All™
COMPANION PETS

Joy for All Companion Pets are robotic pets designed specifically for older adults who are living with a neurocognitive impairment. These pets provide consistent companionship and can promote an overall better quality of life.

Joy for All pets been shown to reduce incidents of dementia-related agitation, easing the burden of care on loved ones and professional staff.

Studies have shown that Joy For All Companion Pets alleviate feelings of loneliness and social isolation, improving mental, emotional, and physical health.

Joy for All Companion Pets have been designed with extensive feedback from aging and elderly loved ones, their families, volunteers, and professional caregivers to provide comfort, companionship, and fun.
